Valley Forge Classical Academy Charter School

About Us

Thomas Jefferson wrote, that “an educated citizenry is a vital requisite for our survival as a free people.” Today’s public schools are too often poor stewards of their public trust, caught between moral and cultural relativism, conflicting views about education’s purposes, and tangled layers of testing and oversight from multi-level bureaucracies. Valley Forge Classical Academy Charter School will provide an effective educational alternative by offering proven curricular and instructional traditions by certified teachers.
